STATEMENT ON RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

I understand that breaching the regulations outlined in the Code of Conduct of students at York University, or any other applicable regulations of York University, may result in the withdrawal of office space in Calumet College.

I also understand and accept that our organization has no right to speak on behalf of Calumet College, nor should it give the appearance of doing so. Finally, I acknowledge that Calumet College accepts no liability arising out of its recognition of our organization and the activities of said group. I agree that our organization shall indemnify and hold Calumet College and its officers/employees harmless for any damages and legal costs resulting from its activities.

I also understand that in return for office space within Calumet College, our club is expected to be present during Calumet College Academic Orientation. During which time all clubs housed in Calumet College will be expected to offer information pertaining to their club's activities to incoming students. (Please note that Academic Orientation takes place annually during the last week of August).

I also understand that in return for office space within Calumet College, our club is expected to host a minimum of one (1) event within Calumet College during each of the school semesters.

I agree to the statement of rights and responsibilities as the primary signing officer of the above stated student organization.
